RAILROAD MEETING.

Yesterday, according to appointment, the meeting to consider the question of building a railroad from this City via Lancaster to Goudine's Station was held. We were glad to see so many gentlemen from Kershaw and Lancaster present. The delegations were composed of men of ability and wealth, who gave their opinion that the people of their respective counties were earnest in the accomplishment of this enterprise. Dr. De Saussure, of Camden, first addressed the meeting. His remarks were practical, well considered and to the point.

Mr. Wm. A. Moore, chairman of the Lancaster delegation, spoke next, pointing out the mode by which the people of his county proposed to raise their quota to the stock. They were willing to subscribe $200,000. His speech was exceedingly clear, able and satisfactory.

Dr. C. J. Fox next addressed the meeting, and soon showed his perfect familiarity with the subject. This was a pet scheme with him. Before the war he and Mr. Moses had worked jointly to secure the charter. He said Charlotte was the centre of the Railroad enterprises and this would be another spoke in the wheel. It would make this city the point of discrimination and consequently the point to which all freights would come to be shipped off or to be distributed. His speech, though short, was full of valuable thought and suggestions. Gov. Vance was next called out, but though he declined speaking, gave his hearty approbation to the enterprise. Gen. Barringer next addressed the meeting in a very happy manner, and his ideas on the subject of Railroads in general and this one in particular were capital. He said he was a national man, but desired commercial independence in the South, and believed that the seaports of the South would do all the exporting and importing that she required. Charleston, in times past, had been the commercial emporium of this section, and would be so again. We regret that we cannot report his speech as we would be glad to present it to our readers. The General is in favor of railroads, and thinks for every dollar expended in their construction five is added to the value of the country. He said that railroad bonds were next in value to real estate and more secure than any other investment; that these corportions were the only ones that survived the shock of war and declared a dividend since the return of peace. He said, though he should subscribe to this road, yet he was in favor of a public subscription, and was willing to be taxed for that purpose.

W. A. Connors, Esq., responded to the call made upon him. He spoke eloquently and ably in behalf of the Road. He took occasion to express the thanks of the South Carolina delegations for the hospitable manner in which they had been received, and paid in passing a high compliment to the Press of the city. His remarks were admirably conceived and beautifully expressed, and met with a hearty response from the meeting which, though not very large, was composed of some of the most intelligent, influential, and wealthy citizens of the county and city.

ANOTHER CHANGE IN THE DESIGNS OF POSTAGE STAMPS.—General Terrell, the Third Assistant Postmaster General, in order to remove the dissatisfaction expressed against the present postage stamps, proposes to change them, and with this view he has directed the bank note company which furnish them to prepare the designs for new issues. The heads of Washington, Jackson, Franklin, Lincoln and Jefferson are to be restored, in place of the present designs, to be represented as profile busts, each to represent the various denominations.—The stamps are to be larger than those now in use and oblong. Instead of 150 being printed on a sheet there will be only 100. The former color—red—will be restored. A month or two may elapse before the new stamps will be ready.—Euston, (Pa.) Express.

A dilapidated old darkey in Montgomery, while watching monkeys in a menagerie in that city, spoke thusly: "Dem children got too much sense to come outen dat cage; white folks cut dar tails off and set 'em to votin' and makin' constitewtions."

LANCASTER RAILROAD.

At a Railroad meeting held in the Court House in this city, Thursday, the 9th of Sept., Maj. C. Dowd was called to the Chair, and W. M. Conners Esq., of Lancaster requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in a few well-timed remarks. On motion, a committee consisting of R. P. Waring, M. L. Wriston, Judge Wm. M. Ship, Gen. R. D. Johnston, R. F. Davidson Esq. and Dr. C. J. Fox, was appointed to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting. On the retiring of the Committee the Chair announced that the meeting was ready to hear from the delegates from Kershaw and Lancaster. Whereupon Dr. De Saussure of the Kershaw delegation read the resolutions of the citizens of his county, and addressed the meeting with considerable force.

Mr W. A. Moore, of Lancaster, explained the views of his county in an interesting and well considered speech.

Dr. Fox, Gov. Vance and Gen. Barringer then addressed the meeting with eloquence and ability, urging the claims of the Road upon the attention of the people of this city and county.

W. A. Connors, Esq., responded to the calls made upon him, and urged the building of the Road.

The committee on resolutions having returned, reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The people of Lancaster and Kershaw are now agitating the building of a Railroad from their respective towns through to Charlotte, and whereas, we regard the Road of great importance to the interest of this city, by giving us a nearer and more direct route to the sea coast and also by opening to the products of this country another market, therefore,

Resolved, That we cordially approve the building of the Road to this city, and will use our utmost endeavors to induce the taking of stock sufficient to secure it.

Resolved, The people of Lancaster and Kershaw, many of whom have heretofore traded here, and by their desiring a close connection by rail with us, manifest a friendly feeling, which we cordially reciprocate.

Resolved, that a committee of five be appointed by the chairman of the meeting, to confer from time to time with the Lancaster and Kershaw delegation, with a view of opening books, and of devising the best mode of raising the subscription necessary for building the road.

The Chair filled the last resolutions by appointing the following gentlemen: C. J. Fox, R. Barringer, T. H. Brem, E. A. Osborne, and Gaston Paul.

It was ordered that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the Charlotte papers, the Lancaster Ledger, and Camden Journal, with the request that other papers along the line will copy.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

C. DOWD, Chm'n.

W. A. CONNORS, Sec'y.

We saw, on yesterday, one of the parties attached to the surveying corps, engaged in running the line from the Coals Field to this place, and we learned from him that the party is within 25 miles of Salisbury, and will be here in a few days.

Examiner.

A man named Daniel Bryant, who "took to" the swamps in '62 to avoid the draft, was discovered by some negroes, near Newbern, a few days ago, and informed that the war was over. He went to Newbern with the intention of leading a civilized life, but soon discovered that he was not in a civilized part of the globe and immediately returned to the swamps.

Star.

Says the Standard: As a matter of information, we are authorized to state that magistrates have final jurisdiction in no case of larceny, but simply to discharge or bind over to the Superior Court such offenders as may be brought before them. Recent decisions of the Supreme Court, in the case of McLaurin and others, and in the State vs. Jarvis have established this fact.

A DRUNKEN MAN KILLED BY BEING THROWN DOWN STAIRS.—A drunken man stopping at the Bradley Hotel, in Portland, insulted two ladies and endeavored to force his way into their room, when the clerk threw him down stairs. In falling, his skull was fractured and he died a short time afterwards. His name was Patrick Murray. He was a tailor, and had a wife and two children.

It is estimated that over 200,000 bushels of last year's wheat crop still remains in the hands of growers in one county in Iowa.

Tournament at the Sparkling Catawba Springs.

SP'G CATAWBA SPRINGS, Aug. 29.

MR. EDITOR—Dear Sir:—Are you one of the class who believe that the South is crushed and that there is no life left? Then let me tell you if you could have witnessed the spirited scene that was enacted at the Sparkling Catawba Springs yesterday, your wavering faith would have revived, and you would have felt that there was a glorious day yet in store for Dixie. The scene I refer to was a Tournament. The Knights who titled for the ring were only little bare footed boys, but so dauntless and brave were they, that if they "fulfill the promise of their youth," our once beloved land will still maintain the character and bravery which she has always so justly borne. Let no one say mere "child's play," and not worth a thought. To such a one I say, were you not once a child yourself, and can you not remember that the ambitions to skate or swim or excel in any sport engrossed your mind as deeply as ever graver and more important ambitions have done since you became a man? And did not defeat and disappointment wound as deeply the childish heart as it has done in later years? You may have followed St. Paul's example, and put away childish things so far as weeping over lost hopes. Yet have you not often envied the little child who could thus be soothed?

These little Knights I write of, had their hearts as much engrossed as ever knights of old, who buckled on their armor for a life and death conflict. The first knight who entered the list was Willie Barnes, the dearest little three year old, entitled the Knight of Marianna, who came toddling up with a lance, which was twice his own length. He made right for the ring, and as much to his own astonishment as every one else; he bore off the ring amid the loudest applause and gayest strains from the band. Then came Charlie Carson, Knight of the Hornet's Nest, and true scion of a Revolutionary sire. He came off with the ring on the point of his spear. Then next in order came Jimmie Hall, Knight of New Hanover, Eddie Carson, Knight of Mecklenburg, McRee Cowan, Knight of Wilmington, Jimmie Wyatt, (son of our host.) Knight of the Old Dominion, Eli Hall, Knight of the Golden Circle, Frank Fremont, Knight of Cape Fear, and Eddie Englehard, your own gallant son, Knight of North Carolina. They each ran seven times, and all did wonderfully well for such little fellows, the largest not more than 4 feet 6 inches tall, and the smallest, darling little Willie, not more than 3 feet. All failed sometimes, and oh! how I felt for the little heart that swelled sometimes until it threated to run over at the eyes, when after the run the ring was missed, and still hung in its place over head, and there was no hearty cheer, and no glad burst of music. But nothing daunted, with head erect, and face turned again to the starting point, they aped back, with all the spirit of '76 and '61 in their step and bearing to try again, and some were rewarded with success next time, but alas, others must needs have another trial of their faith, as we well as skill.

Two of the little fellows, gallant boys, bore off the ring four times, and it had to be decided then by three runs more who should have the honor of crowning the Queen of Love and Beauty—the Knight of Mecklenburg and the Knight of North Carolina. Then the contest became exciting; each bore off the ring twice in succession, and now came the tug of war. The Knight of Mecklenburg bore down right gallantly, but alas! he had run so often in such quick succession at the last, that his little legs were tired and he was all out of breath, and therefore missed the ring, amid the sighs of sympathy from all the lookers-on. Never mind, little Eddie, you have shown what you are, and in the future contest with the world will be sure to come off victorious. The Knigt of North Carolina now came, with oh! such determination written on his face, to conquor or to die; and victory was his reward, amid the shouts of his little friends and the glad strains of Dixie from the band.

Three other knights took the ring three times each, and they contended for the privilge of naming the Second and Third Maids of Honor. These were the Knight of New Hanover, Knight of Old Dominion and Knight of Golden Circle. The Knight of Old Dominion was the victor, when followed a spirited contest between rival brothers, fortune favoring the colors of the younger, the knight of New Hanover, who bore himself with a manliness far beyond his years.

Several of the others took the ring twice—the Knight of Hornet's Nest, Knight of Wilmington, Knight of Cape Fear, and the darling little three year old Knight of Marianna, all the way from Florida, "catching him letting the boys from the old North State beat him, no, sir ree, Bob"!!!

The Knights then formed in a line, and with spears at rest marched to the judges' stand, headed by little Willie, who looked as if the weight of nations rested upon his shoulders One of the Judges announced the result, and proclaimed in behalf of the Knights their selection of a Queen and her Maids of Honor. The Knight of North Carolina chose Miss Nannie Grimes, of Raleigh, to be his Queen of Love and beauty, and approaching this lady fair, he placed upon her head a crown of white lillies, and said in a clear, manly voice, "With high appreciation of your charms, I crown you Queen of Love and Beauty." And I must say here that the youthful knight showed his mother's taste in the dainty manner in which he adjusted the crown in the most becoming manner upon her head. Next came the Knight of Mecklenburg, who crowned as first Maid of Honor, Miss Rosabelle Engelhard, of Wilmington. The Knight of Old Dominion selected, as second Maid of Honor, the little fairy, Augusta Lippitt, of Wilmington, who shook her wealth of auburn curls in real coquetish style as they outhful Knight placed the wreath upon her brew. Then came the manly little Knight of New Hanover, who chose little Bessie Grimes, sister of the Queen, as third Maid of Honor. And arm in arm they marched from the field of honor with hearts as light as ever beat in childhood's glad and happy hours.

At night there was a Ball given to the youthful Knights and their little Queen and Maids of Honor, at which all the little folks appeared in their best bib and tucker. I must leave you to imagine how pure and sweet the little Queen looked in her floating, zephyr-like dress, all glittering with spangles, and the first Maid of Honor, dark-eyed Rosabelle, in her pure white dress, and becoming scarlet ribbons. Then the little Fairy Augusta, like a lilly of the field, who looked as if she slept in a lilly cup, so tiny is she. And timid, shrinking Birdie Grimes, as dainty and as pure as any dove They danced and laughed to their heart's content, until the cruel old sand man came along and the little eyes that were seen so bright began to wink, and the little weary feet grew still, and soon all was repeated in blissful dreams, and the long talked of Tournament was over.

FRIGHTFUL REAPER ACCIDENT.—At Oak Grove, Wisconsin, Mr. Richard Hayland was exhibiting his horses to two visitors, and, to show their good qualities, hitched them to a reaper, which he mounted, and started his team. The horses started up suddenly, the machine struck a stone, Mr. Hayland was thrown from his seat, was struck by the reel, falling on the platform and ground. The sickle struck him on the top of the head, cutting his hat about the middle, passing downward diagonally, severing the ear from the scalp, cutting the carotid artery, and the arm just above the wrist, and through the chest, exposing to view the lungs, and cutting the suspender on the back nearly in two. Instantly the men sprang to his assistance, but he was dead when taken from the machine.

A POWER BEHIND THE THRONE.—Brother-in law Dent, with the conservative carpet-bag, has departed for Mississippi, leaving behind him the most powerful of allies to look after his interests at court. The mistress of the king's heart is more powerful than hostile ministers; and ambitious courtier Madame Grant is a modest, retiring lady, and has exhibited no disposition to dabble in politics until the other day, when her family pride was roused by the assault of Boutwell upon her favorite brother. Then, rumor hath it, she "talked back" at Boutwell, as only a provoked woman can talk, and laid herself out to thwart the radical machinations against the budding Governor of reconstructed Mississippi. She will not be the first Mistress of the White House who has made and unmade Cabinets and high officials. Old Abe found in the wife of his bosom a troublesome and persistent politician. There was Miss Lane, too, who managed, in a good-natured way, her uncle Buchanan. Even the self reliant Old Hickory was dragged into a bitter feud with Calhoun by the intrigues of little Mrs. Eaton, the wife of his Secretary of War. Let the ex-shopkeeper of Groton beware. In attacking a family relation, he tampers with his own official life. Instead of killing off the aspiring brother-in-law, his own head may sudden'y be wanted to mollify an irritated woman.

N. Y. News.

THE SOLEMNIZATION OF MARSHAL NIEL'L FUNERAL formed a spectacle such as Paris only can furnish. The pomp and display were only equalled by the really sincere grief of France at the loss of so brave and faithful a soldier. The old soldiers of the First Empire, the lame and wooden-legged, united with fifty thousand troops of this empire in the pageant; the bier was carried by soldiers; the cushion covered with his decorations also; as the funeral car slowly made its way salutes of artilery were fired; marshals, admirals and ministers bore the pall; the Church of the Invalides was hung in black; battle-flags waved inscriptious of his campaigns—Constantina 1837, Rome 1849, Bomarsund 1854, Sebastopol 1855, and Solferino 1859. The Archbishop of Paris officiated, ladies in deep mourning, officials, diplomatists, Imperial dignitaries, and his fellow officers attended, and as the solemn rites were performed the grief was audible. France buries her brave with honors, and nothing imposing or tributary was omitted in the obsequies of the marshal. The newspapers sound his praises by recapitulating his work. He has left an army of the line of 750,000 men; a garde mobile of 600,000; 1,200,000 muskets in the national arsenals every fortress armed and stored; military supplies massed at every point. What finer inheritance, they ask, can a subject leave to his Prince, citizen to his country, father to his children? How to dispense with them all, replies a very unpoetical and sententious correspondent.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Fever and Ague Season.

When the leaves begin to change, remittent and intermittent fevers make their appearance. From the surface of the earth, bathed nightly in heavy dews, from marshes and swamps surcharged with moisture, from the dying foliage of the woods, from festering pools and sluggish streams, the sun of September evolves clouds of miasmatic vapor perilous to health and life. The body, deprived by the burning temperature of July and August of much of its vigor and elasticity, is not in a proper plight to resist malaria; and hence all diseases that are produced by a depraved condition of the atmosphere are particularly prevalent in the Fall.

There is no reason why the health of thousands of people should be thus sacrificed A preparatory course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is a certain protection against the epidemics and endemics which Autumn brings in its train. Let all dwellers in unhealthy localities, liable to such visitations, give heed to the warning and advice conveyed in this advertisement, and they may bid defiance to the foul exhalations which are now rising night and day, from the soil around them. No farmhouse in the land should be without this invaluable exhilarant and invigorant at any period of the year, but especially in the Fall. It is not safe to go forth into the chill, misty atmosphere of a September morning or evening with the stomach unfortified by a tonic, and of all the tonics which medical chemistry has yet given to the world, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are admitted to be the purest, the most wholesome, and the most beneficial.

Let all who desire to escape the bilious attacks, bowel complaints and malarious fevers, take the BITTERS at least twice a day throughout the present season. It is as wholesome as it is infallible. Look to the trade-mark, "HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS," engraved on the label and embossed on the bottle, and their revenue stamp covering the cork, as counterfeits and imitations abound.

[From the new "DOMINION."]

At this season, when coughs and colds are so prevalent, an effectual remedy, and one easily obtained, is Perry Davis' Vegetable "Pain Killer." It is no new nostrum, vended by unknown agents, but has stood the test of over twenty years; and those who use the article internally or externally will connect with it grateful recollections of its worthy inventor.—Hastings' Chronicle, C. W.

PAIN KILLER.—The testimonials borne to the efficacy of this valuable medicine are sufficient to warrant its introduction into every house. Our own opinion is that no family should be without a bottle of it for a single hour. In flesh wounds, aches, pains, sores, &c, it is the most effectual remedy we know of. A bottle will last for a very long time, and its low price places it within the reach of all. Our readers will remember that the Messrs. Perry Davis & Son have opened a house in Montreal, whence Canadian orders are supplied. News, St. John's, C. E.

☞We are glad to learn that the 'Pain Killer' is having so large a sale in our city. We have every reason to believe it to be an almost never failing cure for pain, and is a medicine that no family should be without. Montreal Pilot.

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.—From the reports of dealers in this city, we think no proprietory medicine has had a larger sale. Its valuable properties, as a speedy cure for pain, cannot fail to be generally appreciated, and no family should be without it, in case of accident, or sudden attack of dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera morbus, and even Asiatic cholera, yields to its magic power, as we see by reports from those sections in the south-west where the disease has been particularly virulent the past summer.—MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT.

OPERATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES MINT.—The entire deposits at the United States Mint for the month of August were $304,212.05, of which $202,569,63 was in gold, and $101,-642.42 in silver. The coinage for the month was but $25,000 in silver and $33,000 in nickel five and three cent pieces. There were gold bars to the value of $7,464.03 and silver bars to the value of $6,970,150. The total number of pieces coined is $1,949,150. Owing to a suspension of the operations for repairs in the chief coiner's department, this statement represents the coinage of but nine working days.

A negre was arraigned in the Fleming Circuit Court, Ky., for carrying a concealed deadly weapon. The charge was apparently proved, and the Judge had ordered a fine against him of $50, when the darkey, much to the astonishment of the court and the amusement of the crowd, drew the deadly instrument in his defence, which proved to be the enameled handle of an old umbrella. The fine was remitted and the colored humorist discharged.

THE NEXT EXPEDITION TO LIBERIA. The board of managers of the American Colonization Society design dispatching their fine ship Golconda from Baltimore about the 12th of October, to touch at Savannah, and sail thence about the first of November. Several hundred emigrants have already applied for passage. She will carry out colored people from Maine, Pennsylvania, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Tennessee. The complaint is general that in all the Southeran States emigration is greatly impeded by politicians, who desire to retain the males in the country in order to use their votes.—Baltimore Sun.

GREENSBORO, N. C. Aug. 31 1869.

J. G. Pinnix,
Geo. R. Maynard,

Gentlemen:—Your favor of the 23d. inst., is at hand. The idea of a Township Court to be composed of the two magistrates and the clerk has become a favorite one with very many people since the adoption of the township system in our State. It is utterly inconsistent with the duty of the Justice of the Peace and in every respect inharmonious with the spirit of our law. I do not know whence the idea sprung but I find it very generally entertained that the township clerk is also clerk of this sort of township court. The fact is otherwise. Not only is there no such court but the clerk has nothing in the world to do with the justices of the peace except when they meet to act upon township matters, which should very seldom occupy more than ten days in the year. The justices may occasionally sit together, not as a joint court, but the one as advisers and assistant of the other. Upon important cases this is advisable. In ordinary business it is just the contrary. The very object, and the only one, of having two justices in the township, is to avoid inconvenience to the citizens by having them in different parts of the township. It also secures a proper administration of the Criminal Law, or should do so. Again, it is frequently desirable that either party should be allowed to remove a cause before another justice on account of bias or the suspicion of bias, on the part of the one before whom the action is brought.

Again, every justice of the Peace is bound to do all business that comes properly before him in his township at all times except upon the legal holidays. Justices of the peace have no right whatever to establish what they may term "Court days." The court of the justice of the peace is always open, and this is its chief beauty and advantage over all other magisterial systems which have ever been invented. Justice suffers no delay. The suitor gets his right without hindrance. No more pernicious idea could get afloat in the minds of both magistrates and people than this, of the intermittent character of the justices' courts.

Not only, therefore, am I compelled to declare this idea to be contrary to the entire scope and tenor of our law, but also, peculiarly hostile thereto and especially to be avoided and deprecated.

I am, Gentlemen,
Vety Respectfully,
Your ob't serv't
A. W. TOURGEE,

SCRANTON, Sept. 7.—The only hope of safety of two hundred and two men in the mine at Avondale, lies in the probability that they may have shut themselves up in the remote part of the mine away from the shaft. The death of those who descended the shaft to rescue them resulted from foul air coming from the mine.

SCRANTON, Sept 8.—It now seems that the efforts to save the miners, probably caused their death. A volume of air sent down for ventilation carried the fumes of the burning shaft into the mine. Nothing is now being done except throwing water down the shaft. The blue damp ascends, making approach to the mouth of the mine dangerous.

Two bodies have been brought up, swelled beyond recognition, and with clots of blood about the mouth, presenting a horrible appearance.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—A special to the Evening Telegram says the Avondale mine has been opened; all the miners were found dead.

Joseph Snyder, who killed a master mason at Fairmount water works, committed suicide to-day, in Moyamensing prison by holding his head in a bucket of water.

Maine.

PORTLAND, Sept. 8.—Hon. Mr. Fessenden died to day.

Foreign.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The Journal official to-day, contradicts the alarming rumors of the Emperor's health, saying, the Emperor attends to his affairs daily. He has suffered some from rheumatism but at no time has his condition been such as to cause the least anxiety.

S. B. SEXTON'S CELEBRATED

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwelings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMCAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage. S. B. SEXTON & CO.,
